SAFA 3rd Party Loss or Damages Insurance while flying outside of Australia

QBE Insurance Policy Number: 031010050430

Insurance Type: Aviation Legal Liability Insurance Policy

Period of Insurance: From 4 pm, 30 June 2020 to 4pm 30 June 2021 (AU local standard time)

Deductible: $2,000.00 AU each and every loss in respect of Property Damage (payable by the member)

To whom it may concern,

This letter is notification, evidence and confirmation that the SAFA holds a current insurance policy that provides: $20,000,000.00 AU limit of cover within the commonwealth of Australia and its territories, and New Zealand, and $1,500,000.00 AU limit of cover worldwide, and the coverage is for 3rd parties for loss and damages caused by a current (at time of accident/incident) member of the SAFA.

$Nil coverage is provided in the USA and Canada.

A copy of the certificate of currency listing general covers is available on the SAFA website: www.safa.asn.au

To comply with the policy:

1. The member must be a current financial member of the SAFA throughout this travel period.
2. Notification of any incident where a claim is likely must be provided to the Operations Manager of the SAFA as soon as practicable following the incident or no later than five days following the incident. The report of incident must be lodged via the SAFA Accident Incident Report System, in the SAFA Members Zone website: <http://www.safa.asn.au>
3. The report must be complete and list all other involved persons.
4. The incident may be reported in email or MSWord format, but must have all information included as per the SAFA on-line Accident/Incident Reporting System.
5. The report must include full contact details of 3rd parties who have suffered injury or loss.
6. The report should be augmented with a detailed statement as to the location of the incident, preferably GPS coordinates and aerial photograph.

To make claim against this insurance:

Send completed Accident/Incident form to the SAFA Operations Manager together with any photos, statements and details of damages caused and associated with the incident. This includes notice of any potential future expenses such as repairs to property or hospitalization of 3rd parties.

If the above conditions are not complied with then the insurer reserves the right to recover any losses incurred that are associated with any insurance claim relating to the incident involving the member.

The member must comply with all aviation regulations and requirements in the countries they visit, including any requirement to be a member of that countries flying administration or association.

Yours sincerely,
